

Mrs. Ethel Fern Frederickson

March 8, 1927 - October 20, 2019

Frederickson, Ethel Fern March 8, 1927 - October 10, 2019 Ethel was born in Gaylord, MN, to August Manthey and Edna Hahn Manthey. She had three siblings: twin sister Edith Jensen, sister Amy Lieder, and brother Earl Manthey, all deceased. Ethel and her sisters stopped their education after the eighth grade. Ethel began her high school education at age 28, and it was her proudest achievement when she graduated in 1959 from Gaylord High School. Her yearbook quote was "With courage, she'll never fail.". Ethel moved to Minneapolis and worked at various clerical jobs. She attended Mt. Olivet Lutheran Church for many years and enjoyed her activities with Circle and Young in Heart Senior Group. Ethel had a large collection of hats and wore one almost daily. She will be remembered for her many lovely creations of embroidery, cross stitch, and crochet. Ethel is survived by her daughter, Ardi Beshears; granddaughters Jodi Minnick Sarda and Tammera Minnick Gilman; four great-grand-children, and two great-great-grandsons. Visitation is scheduled for 1:00 PM, Saturday, January 4, 2020, with a memorial service to follow at 2:00 PM at Mt. Olivet Lutheran Church, 5025 Knox Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN.
