

Ethel Alvilda Grover

October 10, 1921 - July 30, 2019

Ethel Perbix Grover

The Raspberry Queen - 1939, Ethel Perbix Grover, aged 97, died July 30. She was a warm, engaging person even as her dementia progressed. The staff at Emerald Crest where she lived for more than eight years, came to say good-bye as she was dying, including those who no longer worked there. It was a great comfort to her daughter. Grace Hospice cared for her well and tenderly since she fell three weeks ago.

She was a woman engaged with friends and her faith. She served others by helping for years in a prison as well as head of organizations in her community, including Women's Club, PEO, and Mizpah Sunday School.

She is survived by her daughter, Pam Perbix Folk (Jim); grandsons: Karl, Benjamin (Anne), and Anders (Angela); by her sister Lillian Toles (Butz). She has six great-grandchildren.

We will miss her.

Visitation: Thursday, August 8, 5 -7 pm, Washburn-McReavy Strobeck Johnson, 1400 Mainstreet, Hopkins; Friday, August 9, 11 am, Lakewood Cemetery, Minneapolis.
