“ I have many memories of my Aunt Ethel from when I was growing up. She would come to visit or we would stop to see Abe & her family on our travels from place to place. She was always so organized and full of energy. She loved sharing stories with us about her family growing up or about Abe and the kids. She loved teaching us new things and better ways of doing things. She was a strong lady who loved the Lord and her family and I always appreciated her encouragement and direction. She will be sorely missed.
