

Eugene Lee Sailer

July 18, 2013

Sailer, Eugene Lee age 78, of Edina, passed away on July 18, 2013 surrounded by his wife and children after a faithful life. He was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by his wife of 57 years, Betty; sister, Kay Mathison (Richard); children, Scott (Jean), Lisa Schwie (Mike), Stuart (Cynthia); grandchildren, Don, Christine, David, Annelise and Nicholas; step-grandchildren, Amy Collum (Mark), Sara Hedgepeth (Jason), Katie Perrine (Dan), Erin Langston (Bill); step-great-grandchildren, Jake, Tyler, Matthew, Carter, Owen, Remy and many loving nieces and nephews. He was born on October 13, 1934 and adopted by parents Edwin and Agnes Sailer when he was six months old. He grew up in Stanton and Hazen, North Dakota. After graduating from the University of North Dakota, he began his 40 year career with General Mills which included two years of active duty as an Army officer stationed at Fort Benning, Georgia. His career took him to Minneapolis, Great Falls, MT and Kansas City, MO before moving back to Edina in 1971. Throughout his life, he served God through his family, church, community and work. His greatest gift was serving others. He loved doing activities that involved his family and friends. He was truly blessed with a wonderful group of friends that grew into an extended family. Visitation 6-8 PM Sunday, July 21 at Normandale Lutheran Church, 6100 Normandale Rd, Edina. Memorial service at 11 AM Monday, July 22 with visitation beginning at 10 AM at Normandale Lutheran Church. Private interment at Lakewood Cemetery. It was Gene's wish that instead of flowers, memorials be given to Normandale Choir,

Normandale Foundation and Global Health Ministries. www.Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996
