

Evelyn Marie Daniels

June 24, 1939 - September 30, 2022

Evelyn Marie Cary Daniels

Born June 24th, 1939 in Mpls Min, called by God on September 30th 2022

After a long battle with pain, Evelyn has reached peace with God.

Preceded in death by parents Thomas Cary and Laverne Droneck Cary Larson, her son Brian, sisters Barbara and Carol, brother Kevin and sister-in-law Sharon, two nieces and a nephew.

Survived by children: Bradley (Carol), Beth, Barbara, Toni. Grand children Jennifer, Robert, Lee. Great Granddaughter Robyn.

Many Nieces and Nephews, relatives and friends.

As an LPN, Evelyn worked in many fields of nursing, from Geriatrics to the Psych Ward at Anoka State Hospital, but her heart was always in Special Needs, she loved working with the disabled, volunteering at the Special Olympics, and group homes.

However, it didn't stop there, Evelyn's door was always open to a niece or nephew, or any family member that needed a place to get away. She loved her family, (and it was a large Catholic family), and wanted to make sure others needs were met.

She loved life, dancing, camping, fishing, and traveling, were some of the many things she enjoyed. She loved entertaining, and was good at it, no one ever walked away from Evelyn's house hungry.

She was a beautiful person, both inside and out. A devout Catholic, Evelyn was loved by everyone who met her.

She will be dearly missed.
