“ I have great memories of Evie from when I was a young girl. I remember being in love with all her miniatures and amazed at the patience Evie had when creating them.
I recall having fun at the cabin and boat rides on the mighty Mississippi.
May all the great memories of "Grandma Dolly" put smiles on your faces, like they do mine.
We are thinking of you all.
With Love, Tia, Todd and Ethan

“ Doug & Nora, so sorry for your loss. Mother's are difficult to lose and impossible to replace. Her walk by faith in this world is now a walk by sight in the next, for she has now seen & understood the great mystery of what lies behind the visible horizon.
A few lines from "Crossing the Bar"
by Tennyson come to mind:

Sunset and evening star
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning...,
When I put out to sea,

Twilight and evening bell,
And after that the dark!
And may there be no sadness of farewell,
When I embark;

All our love,
