“ Dear Evy,
Why did you go ahead of me? It was my turn, anyway we had fun days growing up and it continued into later years. God bless your family, now you won't have to think what to make for lunch or supper, like we used to talk about.
You always were so happy and talkative and that big smile would almost make you melt. Now you're with God, keep those pearly gates open for me. I miss you very much.
Love your big sister Lois Freie

“ Dear Evie,
You were my younger sister and I loved you dearly. I hold so many wonderful memories of all of the times we shared as children....as adults....as parents...and as grandparents. We will also share Eternity together!! Save a place for me...I'll be there soon.

“ Aunt Evie will surely be missed! Although we lived miles apart, I have always felt close with my extended family. She was someone who I tried to be like. She had strong family values, loved life, and always had such fun stories about going to her kids, and later grandchildren's ball games. I will never forget her laughter, her smile, or the times I stayed with her family in the summer when I was little.

Her suffering has ended, the "house" that was her flesh body is no more, but her soul, spirit, which is the real her, is eternal. She is living with our Savior, Jesus Christ! Praise God and we who believe also, will see her again.

My prayers go out to her family and friends for their continued strength, and faith, in Christ Jesus, let Him share this burden of loss. He will give you peace.

“ Evelyn Kassera was my aunt. She was a kind spirited lady with a good soul. She was reserved, classy and elegant. I'll forever treasure the wonderful memories of her especially from my childhood when I would visit her family in Minnesota or when we gathered together as a family for holidays & reunions. Christmas at Grandma Olson's was a little piece of Heaven here on earth. It is a treasured memory that will live on always in my heart. Many of the people who made those gatherings so special have gone home to be with The Lord. Aunt Evie has now joined them as she steps into Heaven and out of her earthly body. I will remember her always, her smile and the beauty she imprinted on my life. We will see her again someday when we, too, are blessed with a pair of wings.

May God bring Peace to all who loved her during this time of loss and grief.
