“ We were very fortunate to have Aunt Evie as part of our family. She was well loved by her husband, children, brothers, sisters and nieces and nephews.

After Paula and I were first married Evie would go to garage sales and then stop by and share some of her purchases with us. I can especially remember a patio set that she gave us and a bowling ball that fit her hand perfectly and the first and last initials were the same as hers.

When our daughter was born we asked Evie and Benny to be her godparents and they become a very important part of her life and well as our two sons life. Remember many holiday celebrations that we were able to share with her and other family members.

I was fortunate to attend her 100th birthday party last month along with her children and my brothers and sisters. That is a memory that I plan to cherish for many years into the future

“ Aunt Evie was such a kind, gentle, caring and beautiful woman in so many ways. Anyone who met Evie was instantly "hooked" and wanted to be her friend and get to know her better. Her smile and "wink" lit up any room. I was truly blessed that she and Benny were my godparents and visited me often during my six-month stay at the Sister Kenny Institute. Having known her for 71 years, I can assure anyone that in her roles as wife, mother, sister, employee, friend, and citizen, she was one of the best!!! Most of all, though, I know how much Evie loved and cherished her children and that she would do anything for them. I am fortunate to have so many fond memories of her to hold close to my heart. I'll truly miss my visits with Evie and, of course, each time the numerous offers for something to eat and a cup of coffee (and telling me she had already shared a cup of coffee with Dorothy in her "sister" cup that morning)! I give thanks for the gift of Evelyn Marie LeClaire in my life. Hugs and love go out to Cindy and Matt, Roger, and Bob.
