“ Evie was always a kind and loving woman, who always asked about me and others. I will greatly miss our conversations as well as her warming hugs. I'm sure when my days are done, Evie will be waiting at the pearly gates to give me a bus ride to the casino in the sky. We will always love you ! I am honored to have had the pleasure of knowing you. I shall not miss you, for you are forever with me in my heart and travel with me wherever I go.

“ Will always remember her hearty laugh. She had generous heart and have fond memories of going to spend time in Coon Rapids with our cousins. Aunt Evie taught me to swim in the clay hole and learned to waterski on Lake George. She and my Mom shared a close sister bond, she was my favorite and I loved having her in my life growing up. She was a strong, independent, kind person. I love you Auntie.

“ Rest in Peace, Auntie, we all love you very much and will miss you greatly. You taught us all the value of hard work plus a great attitude, mixed with a healthy sense of humor, always accompanied by good food, and topped off with unconditional love. You are in our hearts and will be forever. Til we meet again...thank you, love you, miss you.
