“ Every couple months for the last 23 years I get online and look for you. If I had been back home I might have been able to find you. I'm not surprised at the age of your passing at all. You were always quite active back then. I have never forgotten your kindness and friendship. I appreciate you coming the day I gave birth. You were always there for me. I've never forgotten a single advice or story. I appreciate every time you came to make sure i got on the correct buses to get to work and back home..showing me what areas were safe and were not. I wish I would have been able to see you and speak to you just one more time but instead as I have been I cherish pictures and memories. I hope you did not suffer any pain when you passed. One day we will meet again. Love you always,
Christina
