

Farhan Muhammad

March 4, 2014

Muhammad, Farhan It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Farhan Muhammad, age 41, on March 3, 2014. Visitation will be held at the Washburn- McReavy Funeral Home located at 7625 Mitchell Road, Eden Prairie on Thursday, March 6, 2014 between 11 am - 1 pm. Funeral service will be held at the Washburn-McReavy Funeral Home on March 6, 2014 at 1 pm. Burial will follow at Eden Prairie Cemetery located off of Eden Prairie Road. Farhan was born in Karachi, Pakistan. He attended Minnesota State University, Mankato, and University of Minnesota. He was a technology leader in the greater Minneapolis area and went on to found ILM Services, where he served as Chief Executive Officer (CEO). When he was not tinkering with technology, he could be found salivating over airplanes, experimenting with the culinary arts, and being the world's best dad. We hold him in our hearts as an aspiring comedian, a devoted family-man, and an inspiration to many. Farhan is survived by his wife, Farhana Ahmed; son, Shayan Farhan; and daughter, Rhea Farhan. “ The news for the loss of Farhan came to me as pounding of heavy rock on my chest. I have spent short time with Farhan. But I came to learn how pleasant person he was. Farhan has left me with memories of his amazing time. I miss him as my own brother. May his soul be in peace. And may his beloved family has the strength to recover from his loss.

“ To Luna, Shayan, Rhea and everyone in Farhan and Luna's families: My condolences on this sad occasion. While we only had the chance to work together for a year and a half, it was obvious that Farhan was a truly special person. In addition to being a good husband and father I admired Farhan's eternal optimism, coolness under pressure, vast knowledge of technology and his willingness to take chances. He was a one of a kind and the world could use more people like him.

Condolences and prayers from the Belich household.

“ I am sorry to hear about your shocking loss. I am glad I had the honor to work with Farhan at ILM. I will miss his contributions to the Twin Cities community. Farhan always took care to reach out to the people with whom he came into contact in order to maintain a personal connection.

“ Luna, Shayan, Rhea... I am so saddened and so deeply sorry for your loss. You are first in my thoughts. In my two years working for Farhan at ILM, I learned how to identify and define the consummate IT professional. It was easy to learn, because Farhan exemplifies that very definition. Smarts, grit, clairvoyance and a sense of humor are non-negotiable requirements. He had them all, in addition to being a great dad whose eyes would light up at the mere mention of his kids. In order to hire someone, ILM needs to see a little bit of Farhan in that person, and that approach is what will keep his hard work and dreams alive into the future. I look forward to following your continued success in carrying out Farhan's legacy. Bless you all.

“ This is indeed a sad day. I met Farhan and Luna professionally when they started their business venture and before. I always remember our first meeting at the Perkins in Shakopee-before they had an office before they had their beautiful children. While our relationship has always remained at the professional level, we all grew closer over the years and we all felt like family. It amazed me today when I talked of our relationship to Luna's sister-that I started to cry.....it dawned on me just how much I have grown to love them both over the years.....Luna-I will be there to help you as you endeavor to keep his business and his dreams alive. “ Farhan was incredibly dedicated to his children. He explored his children's interests with them and he encouraged his children to learn more. His son, Shayan, wrote a wonderful story about a man who was hiking the Himalayas. I shared the story with Farhan and Luna. Farhan explained it was based on a documentary they had been watching because Shayan expressed interest in it. Farhan has taught me to listen to my own children and take the time to help them pursue their interests. Thank you for sharing your gifts with us.

“ It was my honor and privilege to know and collaborate with Farhan, Luna, and the ILM team. His impish grin, commitment to family and business, sincerity, and knowledge are memories that bring a huge smile. Heartfelt condolences to Farhan, Shayan, Rhea and the extended ILM family. You are in my thoughts. - Roberta Cohen
