“ Omg foffee as I called her was my best friend from 6th grade thru high school my sister just told me. Her oldest daughter and my only daughter are the same age we shared our motherhood sisterhood I will truly miss you foffee rip love Carmen Jackson-brown

carmen brown - July 31, 2019 at 08:25 PM

Thank you, Carmen, for reaching out. Like you, we are all still stunned by this unbelievable tragedy. Fofee cherished your friendship, greatly. Many times during our conversations, your name came up. She always spoke fondly of you. I know you loved Fofee and she loved you, too. We truly, deeply miss her, also.-----Affectionately, Charlotte Tillman, on behalf of the Banks and Tillman families

“ I remember Felicia from kindergarten as she was my first friend there. We played with blocks and would sit together at piano. She was so sweet and kind all through school. I am lifting her family up in prayers at this difficult time. Thinking of You, Kelley Hempel

Kelley Hempel - July 31, 2019 at 07:51 PM

Thank you, Kelley, for sharing your wonderful memory of Felicia with us. As my big sister, she was my first friend, too. Felicia remained sweet and kind throughout her life. We appreciate your thoughts and prayers during this most challenging time.-----With warmest regards, Charlotte Tillman, on behalf of the Banks and Tillman families.
