“Dearest Marilyn...I cannot help but remember the song I sang to you when you found me again and told me about your wonderful Nando..."Your sweet & shiny eyes are like the stars above Laredo, like meat & potatoes to me...In my sweet dreams we are in a bar and it's my birthday, and we're having our picture taken with Fernando!" [with thanks to Bonnie Raitt, Willie Nelson, and Merle Haggard...]I feel so sad that we won't be able to do that darlin' -- or go fishing all together either. I read all of the other entries in this book -- I wish I could have met your wonderful husband. My heart is with you, along with prayers for Nando, you and Andre, Lucy, and the rest of your dear ones. Know that I would be there if I could; I Am there in spirit. Do not hesitate to call, write, or show up on our doorstep if so moved. Any time is the right time. Bless Nando, Bless you my dear friend, Stay in the Light. Love and huge hugs to you, Freida, Tyler and Katey.

“ Fernando, I did not know what to say?? I did everything with Fernando. We collected beercans, collected golfballs from the Minnehaha creek at Meadowbrook golf course and sold them so we could get candy and pop and may be a comic book from Brookside Drug. We fished and fished and fished. Hopped freight trains just for the ride. Road tripped just to go knowing where not we were headed. I watched Haileys comet on lake of the woods unable to get out to ice fish since the ice was melting and covered with a foot of water but still to see the northern lights and the comet was something I will never forget. You are my daughter Racquel's godfather and will be deeply missed by her but she knows that you are up above watching her all the time. Through thick and thin you have always been my friend. It is so sad that at a time when we all seem to be getting ahead in life that you were taken from us and Marilyn. I have not had a waking moment without you in my thoughts and a song keeps running through my head "Wish You Where Here" because we are all really are just a couple of lost souls swimming in a fishbowl year after year running over the same old ground oh how I wish you were here. Marilyn and Andre our hearts are with you. Greg, Tanya, Devyn, Racquel, and of course Muskydog and Curtis Lowe aka Lucy's boyfriends. Remember look out for that ice fishing hole.

“ To Marilyn and Andre - I knew Fernando back in Jr. high and Sr. high. Kris Koehler (Thomas) and I grew up next door to each other. Fernando was quite mischevious, let me tell you! There was always something going on in his mind that would end up surprising you. Kris mentions the firecracker episode, perfect example! We sure had a lot of fun times back then. Oh my. There was a lot of time spent at my house in our garage with the whole group. There were probably anywhere from 8-10 of us on any given weekend night. Shooting pool, listening to music that was far too loud - today the cops would call us but then?? We didn't care, we were just having FUN! Though I hadn't seen Fernando for many, many years, from what I've read and what I've heard in the last week, Fernando continued in life with his free spirit. My thoughts are with you both - Marilyn and Andre. Though I've never met you, you obviously were the shining lights in Fernando's life. P.S. I'm attaching a photo that I found in my old pictures box from about 1979. It's Fernando, myself and Mike Riley (and our dog Lady). Silliness at its best.

“ Dear Fernando, I just returned from your memorial service and was truly moved on what a wonderful man you grew up to be. I thought I knew what I wanted to write in your guest book. I even had written something but after your service I really thought about our time growing up in jr. and sr. high. I remember our time playing basketball and pool in the Torgeson's garage or listening to music. Playing cards at my house and going up to our family cabin. Even the time you lit firecrackers and someone called the police on us. You were on the roof of the Torgeson's garage, as the rest of us got the fireworks are dangerous lecture. The whole time grinning down at us from your hidden perch with them not even knowing you were there. My dad still talks about how you would fill your pockets with whatever leftover meat my mom had on the counter from dinner, and how on our graduation day you only wore shorts under your cap and gown and shoes with no socks. One of the last times I saw you was when you were working on my grandmother's house. You promised to finish the job up but didn't show up. I got mad, but you smiled at me with that sparkle in our eyes and told me you had to take the day off because it was a good fishing day. I kept informed on your life even though I didn't see you after I got married and moved away. I still remember the first day I met you. You were one of those people that touched my life and I will never forget you. I just wish I would have gotten to know the wonderful man you grew up to be as you were awesome to know in our youth. I am glad that you found someone like Marilyn to love and to love you back. It sounds like your love is everlasting. I picked your son right out of the crowd. He looks like a fine young man. I will remember you always with love in my heart and a smile on my face. Til we meet again. Always, Kris Marilyn and Andre, My thoughts and prayers are with you and your families. I know at times things are said to the ones left behind to console...I truly know all the writings by the others in this guest book and me included sincerely, from the bottom of our souls mean every word of how truly blessed we were to know Nando...his demeanor, his true caring, his love of life. All in all he was a complete person we could all learn from and be better for following him. God has another beautiful person with Him and with prayers and His love you will find comfort. “ My deepest sympathy to Fernando's family. I still remember when Fernando's family moved across the alley from us in St. Louis Park. He was so funny, had a great smile. Always made us all laugh. Everyone used to play basketball in Patty and Brian's driveway which was right across the alley from his house. Fernando would stand on his step and throw the ball across the alley. And make it. It sounds corny but it was pretty amazing back then. He is one of the people that you will always remember, and laugh when you do. Our sympathy to you Marilyn and Andre. “ Marilyn We have never met. I am Frenan's cousin, Maria Magadan Marcom. I haven't seen Frenan since the Pat Travers concert in the early 80's. He was fun; he always made me laugh. When we saw him all the time growing up, he was the clumsiest guy I've ever known; always tripping over his own feet or getting his hand stuck in the bicycle spokes while riding his bike. I think he liked making me laugh. As our lives all went different directions, we didn't stay in touch. I feel so badly especially since I was in MN a few months ago and his name came up. I could have looked him up and said "hey, how the heck are you?" I'm so sorry I didn't. Life is strange, isn't it? We really do take moments and those we love for granted. I don't know anything about Frenan and what he was like the last 25 years, but I know he was special. I am so sorry for your loss.
