

Florence A. "Mini" Moynihan

December 26, 2012

Moynihan, Florence "MINI" Age 86, passed away Christmas Day eve, 2012. As was her wish, she was in her home with family members to witness her peaceful spirit go to heaven. She is preceded in death by her parents, a brother, a sister, and her husband of 51 years, John. Her life was lived to the fullest. Growing up on a farm near Plainview, MN, she developed a great love of life for the nurturing of plants, animals, and family. After graduating from Winona State Teachers College, where she met and married John; they began their education careers together. She changed her focus to her own family where she gave birth to and raised eight children. She did so while doing community service as a volunteer in religious education, multiple charitable involvements, the Arboretum, and the Edina Historical Society. With Society support, she created the Old Cahill School Program, teaching as the school "Marm" for 21 years. She is survived by six brothers and sisters and their children; Her children; Timothy, Jeremiah, Elizabeth (Paul), Molly, John Jr. (Nancy), Ann, Patrick and Marie (Scott), and grandchildren, Matt, Kelly, Ted, Tara, Riley, Colin, Dan, Maeve, Joe, Brianna, Maggie and Jack. Relatives and friends are invited to the visitation at Washburn-McReavy Funeral Home, 50th St. at Highway 100, on January 1st four to seven P.M. A one hour visitation prior to an 11 o'clock A.M. Mass will be at St. Patrick's Catholic Church, (corner of Gleason and Valley View Road, Edina), on Wednesday January 2nd. PS

“ To my cousins and their children. Today you are heavy on my heart. As you celebrate a magnificent life and rejoice in the reward of eternal life for our Flo, I know that there will be a great void. She loved so well and gave so much it is hard to imagine a world without her. I know that no life is perfect but I can say emphatically that everything I know and remember of Aunt Flo was passionate, loving and good. Today I grieve her loss and your sorrow. Life is changed forever when we say goodbye to our parents but their love is forever ours. I pray for peace for you and rejoice in hers.

Sympathy from Florida. Your cousin.

Patty Schneider.
