Florence was energized by music, friendship and good food. She was kind, sincere, honest, humble, and never held a grudge. She had a great sense of humor. Her love and compassion for her family and friends was never compromised. Florence was thankful for all she had and was always amazed that when she stumbled in life she always landed on her feet. In her later years she took pleasure in her family, her friends at Becketwood, a good meal and a good TV Show. She will be so, so missed. Washburn-McReavy Nokomis Park Chapel 612-721-1651
