“ Growing up I never knew how brilliantly knowledgeable you were or spiritually grounded you were. But now thinking of the comments you said or actions you did it only makes me think of you fondly and know you knew EXACTLY who you were spiritually. Now I only wish I could be more like you. I miss you Grandma and love you.

“ Dear Mom, It's almost a year since your passing and not a day goes by, I still don't miss you..I see your smile, feel your presence but oh my word I miss your voice and our talks and your company. You were my favourite companion. I miss our days together. I feel your love, I learned so much from you and I am still thanking you, loving you and trying to be as strong as you were. Love Loretta, your daughter

“ To the Yurick family, It's hard to forget your mom's great attitude and spunk. I always liked hanging out at the house day after day after day... she made me feel so welcome. Especially the Christmas she bought the hockey game that we played daily the entire winter. I don't think a game was ever used as much as that game was. Hope all the good memories get you through the tough moments. She will be missed.

“ Dear children of Aunt Florence, You all probably do not remember me, but I knew your mother. I loved the times I spent with her. I remember a time when she and Aunt Mary, Steve & Bertha came to my home in Coon Rapids and made molded chocolate candy. Your mother was was so much fun! She had melted chocolate everywhere and really enjoyed licking her fingers. We all laughed and had a really fun time. I know she really loved her family and enjoyed spending family vacations together. I always enjoyed receiving the annual family picture at Christmas time. May Aunt Florence rest in peace. We who knew her appreciate her contribution to our life experience. She will remain in my heart forever. I regret that I will not be attending her funeral, but I will keep you all in my prayers during this difficult time. Sincerely, Susan (Yurick) Ritter

“ No one was tougher than Florence. She made it seem as though she would live for another twenty years. She must have had a secret ingredient in those cookies. We will be telling legends of her to our grandchildren.
