“ With deepest sympathy to the family. May you find comfort in this poem:

I thought of you with love today, but that is nothing new.

I thought about you yesterday, and days before that too.

I think of you in silence, I often speak your name.

All I have are memories, and your picture in a frame.

Your memory is my keepsake, with which I'll never part.

God has you in his keeping...I have you in my heart.

Butch, the neighborhood will never be the same without you. No more waving as we pass each other or visits across the fence. May you Rest In Peace my dear neighbor with Sue by your side. Until we meet again.....

“ Frank was my son Jason's p.o. for several years . He was tough but I also knew that he cared about Jason. Then when Jason moved into the adult supervision when he turned 18, it seemed that Frank would miss him. I know that Frank would be proud of Jason now because he has turned his life around, is working, has a girlfriend and a baby boy. We are thankful for Frank's service and guidance with Jason. May he RIP. 🙏🙏.

“ The best day of our life was when you married our best friend Sue. We have had so many wonderful trips and times at the lake. It was wonderful to be in the same park in Arizona with you and Sue. We had many fun parties and experiences here in "The Resort"

We will miss you so much but now you are with Sue and the Lord.

Our thoughts and prayers are with Kim, Rachelle and your family.

I met Frank through his favorite brother Mike. What a class act he was. I will remember his great smile! Always had a fun time with him. Most memorable was our visit to his cabin up north and to his home in AZ. He took us on a very scenic trip in southern AZ and to Frank Lloyd Wright's Taliesin West home near Phoenix. He said Sue always wanted to go there. Well, now he can join her and rest in peace ❤️
