

Francisca Matias Hernandez

November 26, 2018

Francisca Matias Hernandez was born in Manila, Philippines on December 3, 1932.

She was a loving sister to her four younger siblings (Jose, Concordia, Manuel and Alicia) and devoted aunt to numerous nieces and nephews.

Francisca, known to her friends and family as Tita King, instilled the importance of education to her nieces' and nephews' and supported their educational pursuits. She also helped many of them emigrate to the United States. She resided in Manila, Philippine and made frequent visits to her family in Minnesota. She eventually moved to Minnesota and became a citizen of the United State in 2013.

She spoke fondly of her friends at Cathay Pacific Airlines. She would often share stories of their adventures both in the office and on their travels abroad. She enjoyed visiting friends and family throughout the world.

She was survived by her sisters Concordia (with Ignacio Munar), Alicia Hernandez and Mellie Hernandez (widow of Manuel Hernandez). She will be remembered as a loving sister, aunt, friend and spiritual mother to many.

Visitation will be held at Holy Cross Catholic Church on Monday, December 3, 2018 from 10:00 AM and followed by mass at 11:00 AM. Luncheon to follow the mass.
