

Frank B. Evans

March 24, 2013

Evans, Frank B. age 92 of St. Louis Park. Survived by loving companion of 35 years, Barbara Webb; children, Dan (Marsha) Evans of Maple Plain, Ann Marie (Jerry) Holm, Frank (Marilyn) Evans, and Mark Evans all of Canada; 10 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren. Frank attended high school in St. Paul. Following high school he worked briefly in Chicago before joining the Army, where he spent four years as a medic in Europe. After returning from the service he attended St. Paul School of Arts. Upon graduation he began a career in Commercial and Fine Arts. He loved classical music and taught himself to play the troubadour harp. He also entertained with his harmonica. Having written and saved many poems and stories he, with the help of a friend, published a book. Always a tennis player, he was a charter member of Senior Tennis Players Club "STPC" and played into his '80s. He and Barb enjoyed trips to Europe, Mexico and winter months in Florida. Frank was a 50 year member of the Unitarian Society. He and Barb attended the U.U. Summer Camp at Lake Geneva for 25 years.
