

Frank Edward Mammen

February 28, 1943 - January 8, 2023

was born on February 28, 1943, to Edward and Muriel (Anderson)Mammen in Spencer, Iowa. He graduated from Milford High School with the class of 1961. Following high school he attended Northrop Institute of Technology where he obtained his Associates degree and Airframe and Powerplant License. He then followed it up by joining the military, where he worked on helicopters. In the fall of 1964 he started working for Northwest Airlines as an airline mechanic in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Frank's talents were soon recognized and he was awarded the title of one of the "3 wise men" in line maintenance in Minneapolis.

In December of 1969 Frank was united in marriage to Diane Dee Sundquist.

He continued his career at Northwest Airlines for 41 years. During that time he moved into management and held several positions until his retirement in 2005.

Frank was also a wealth of knowledge in all things mechanical and construction to friends and family. He was famous for being able fix or build about anything. In his spare time you could often find him in his garage working intently on a project.

He was able to travel the world for business and pleasure. He enjoyed family, vintage cars, taking photos, Vikings football and a good glass of wine.

Frank passed away on January 8, 2023 at Fairview Hospital at the age of 79. He was preceded in his death by his parents.

He is survived by his wife, Diane Mammen; son, Jason Mammen; grandson, Justin Mammen; daughter Kimberlee and her husband John Henningsen; grandchildren, Owen and his wife Kelsi Henningsen, Kallen Henningsen, and Bailey Henningsen; great grand children Belle and Cora; sister Kay Mammen; and many other relatives and friends.
