“ Dear Marlene,
Terri, Diane, grandchildren and siblings and relatives and friends.
Your loss is immense. Frank will be missed dearly by our Wiggins family. He was a dear and close friend of John and I and we shared many a Anniversary celebration and shared in their 50th which seems like yesterday. We saw your joy and celebration as a family while you were neighbors on Brighton Lane.
We were fortunate to have you as babysitters Terri and Diane. It was so nice to see your families and realize the gems you were to your husband and Dad through his life and your support and love you offered him. Heavens gain is surely yours and our loss. May God hold you and rock you gently in the palm of his hands as you release your grief. Our Love and prayers. The Wiggins and families.

“ You know our prayers have been with you and Frank and your family, Marlene, throughout Frank's illness. We grew to love you both through these past few years and will continue to pray for you. Frank was an inspiration to everyone around him. We loved his sense of humor and warm smile of understanding. He definitely will be missed. But until we see him again, he is safe in the arms of Jesus.
