

Frank P. Vanick

February 17, 2015

Vanick, Frank P. of Brooklyn Center, was a comedic character and great friend to many, who passed peacefully on February 17 at the age of 82. He was a proud veteran of the Korean War. He was preceded in death by parents, sisters, first wife, Theron and great-grandchild Rhael. Survived by loving wife Pat, children Leah, Mark (Jean), Lisa Johnson (Dave) and Lynn, 10 grandchildren, 16 great-grandchildren, sister Darlene and step-sons, Justin and Shawn. Gathering of family and friends at The Crossings, 6125 N. Lilac Dr., Brooklyn Center on Mon., Feb. 23, 12-2 pm. Private interment at Gethsemane Cemetery in New Hope. Washburn-McReavy (763) 537-2333