

Fred Rowe Dailey

December 22, 1930 - January 6, 2021

Dailey, Fred Rowe 90 died January 6, 2021 at Mercy Hospital in Coon Rapids. He was born December 22, 1930 in Hudson, MA, the son of Francis and Verna (Rowe) Dailey. He was a veteran of the Korean War. He served as a combat construction specialist. He was a loyal member of American Legion Post 622 in St. Francis. He was a master craftsman making beautiful furniture. He was a truck driver by trade. He lived on his beautiful farm in Andover for over 45 years which is his legacy he leaves to his daughters. In addition to his parents, he is preceded in death by his wife, Lorraine (Farder); his son, Jeffery Allen Dailey; his foster parents, Ken and Rose Laska; his brothers and sisters, Vivian Curley, Emma Hubert, Laura Johnson, Charley Dailey, Ralph Dailey, Frances Hackel, Alice Farder, Robert Dailey. Surviving are his 2 daughters, Karen (Steven) Steck of Andover and Patricia Vollmer of Andover; grandchildren, Christopher Steck, Timothy Steck, Jenna (Jason) Spielman, Eric Vollmer, Ryan (Nina) Vollmer, Megan Vollmer; great grandchildren, Lily Molin, Faith Spielman, Avery Weber. He will be missed by his many nieces and nephews. Funeral service will be private.