

Fred Ojienda Gondi

April 27, 1992 - October 7, 2025

It is with deep sorrow that we announce the passing of Fred Gondi Ojienda, who was born on April 27, 1992, in Nairobi, Kenya, and passed away suddenly on October 7, 2025, at his home in Burnsville, Minnesota. He was 33 years old.

Fred was the beloved son of Moses Ojienda and Leah Irene Ojienda. He attended Upper Hill High School and later Kenyatta University, where he pursued Medical Administration before relocating to the United States in 2015. A proud U.S. Navy veteran, Fred served his country with dedication honorably for two years. He was known for his high spirits, infectious laughter, and big heart. Always full of life, Fred had a magnetic personality - he was the "cool kid," full of charm, humor, and an eye for the finer things in life, yet humble and deeply caring toward others.

Fred is survived by his loving wife, Sylvia and son Lloyd Gondi, his parents, and his brother, Bill Ojienda.

He will be remembered for his laughter, warmth, and love that touched everyone who knew him. Though gone too soon, Fred's light and spirit will live on in the hearts of his family and friends forever.

Previous Events

Visitation

OCT 24. 3:00 PM - 4:00 PM (CT)

Glen Haven Chapel
5125 West Broadway
Crystal, MN 55429

Chapel Service

OCT 24. 4:00 PM - 8:00 PM (CT)

Glen Haven Chapel
5125 West Broadway
Crystal, MN 55429

Tribute Wall

“ Washburn-McReavy Funeral Chapels created a Chapel Service for Fred Ojieda Gondi in memory of Fred Ojienda Gondi

Washburn-McReavy - October 22, 2025 at 12:26 PM

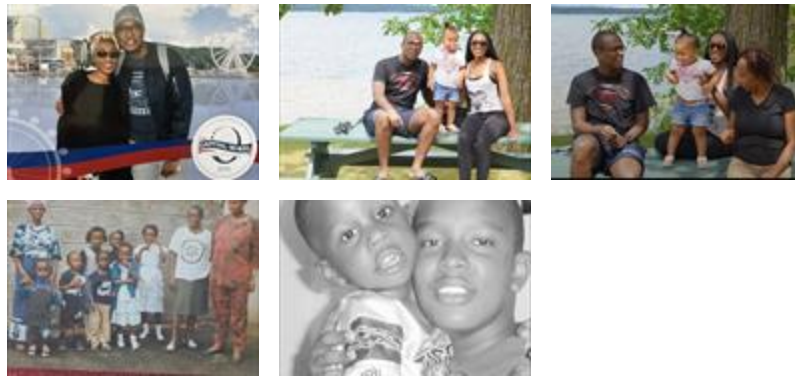

ED

Rest with the Grace, Peace, and Love of our good God almighty. You left too soon, but we have accepted God's will. Kindly keep watch over us. Miss ya!❤️ Uncle Ed!

Ed - October 23, 2025 at 07:16 PM

Maryanne Figaroa

“ Freddy, you are deeply missed. It breaks my heart not to be able to call you anymore. We shared so many beautiful memories from our childhood — birthdays, holidays, and countless family moments that I will always cherish. You were a wonderful uncle to my kids, and I often remind them of the special times you shared together. Your kindness, laughter, and love will never be forgotten. We pray that your soul rests in peace, and may God grant comfort and strength to those who loved you most. Today and always, we celebrate your life and the joy you brought to ours.

Maryanne Figaroa - October 24, 2025 at 08:06 PM

CG

“ Freddie, it is difficult to talk about you in the past and even harder to fathom your sudden and premature (in our measure) departure. May the memories we shared including the laughs, random calls, debates, and inspirations live on. You are loved and dearly missed. Rest well Cuz.

To the family and friends who mourn Freddie, may peace be with you all. May his memory live on in our hearts.

Caro Good - October 24, 2025 at 04:41 PM

DM

“ Fred, although we met briefly , your humor and contagious energy will forever be remembered. The last time I saw you was in valley fair riding roller coasters. You were so excited the entire time . I remember you cracked jokes when I was terrified by the speed of the corkscrew ride.

I am praying for your family, may God give them strength through this difficult season.

May the lord God rest your soul.

Damaris M - October 24, 2025 at 12:56 PM

GK

“ “I Last Saw You in San Diego”

(In Loving Memory of Freddy)

I last saw you in San Diego,

Where sunlight touched the sea,

And though I didn't know it then,

God's call had come for thee.

You stood so strong and full of grace,

A soldier brave and true,

But Heaven saw your faithful heart

And opened gates for you.

Your battle's done, your rest is won,

Your spirit's found its home,

With Jesus now you walk in peace,

Where pain can never roam.

We miss your smile, your steady gaze,

The kindness that you gave—

Yet know that Christ has welcomed you,

Beyond the quiet grave.

So march on streets of shining gold,

Where holy waters flow—

Till we meet again, dear friend,

From Auntie Grace Kanai Doren farewell thee Freddy.

grace wambui Kanai-Doren - October 23, 2025 at 08:10 PM

GK

“I Last Saw You in San Diego”
(In Loving Memory of Freddy)
*I last saw you in San Diego,
Where sunlight touched the sea,
And though I didn't know it then,
God's call had come for thee.
You stood so strong and full of grace,
A soldier brave and true,
But Heaven saw your faithful heart
And opened gates for you.
Your battle's done, your rest is won,
Your spirit's found its home,
With Jesus now you walk in peace,
Where pain can never roam.
We miss your smile, your steady gaze,
The kindness that you gave—
Yet know that Christ has welcomed you,
Beyond the quiet grave.
So march on streets of shining gold,
Where holy waters flow—
Till we meet again, dear friend,
From Auntie Grace Kanai Doren farewell thee Freddy.*

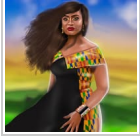

grace wambui Kanai-Doren - October 23, 2025 at 08:08 PM

LO

Brings tearsrest easy Fred ❤️

Leah Ojienda - October 24, 2025 at 12:48 AM

“ Fred was a classmate initially but eventually one of my best friends especially in our high school- campus days and we would use that coined term “BFF” to call each other. I was one of his great wing men but he was a sweet charmer based on the fact that he was a certified mamas boy so he never needed me as he was always very kind and gentle . When Fred left for the US in 2012 I was very sad but I knew what it meant to be reunited with his mom so we kept contact and gladly reconnected in 2020 all this to say this hurts so bad and feels like a terrible dream but I hope where you are you are at Peace where you are you are watching over your loved ones,wife and Son and one day this will be lighter on them! Juicymane, OJ , BFF May the good lord rest your soul in eternal peace🕊️

Wairimu Kinyua - October 22, 2025 at 11:27 PM

LO

🥹 thanks for sharing.

Leah Ojienda - October 24, 2025 at 12:47 AM