“ A few years ago Fred and I were at a car auction in Kissimmee, FL. I purchased a car and we rented a truck and car trailer to haul it back to Cape Coral, FL. We were on a 6 lane road near Orlando and I am driving the truck with the trailer, following Fred in the right hand lane. It was a busy intersection and suddenly Fred turns left across two lanes of traffic, without signaling ahead of the turn. I do not know how, but I somehow got the truck and trailer through the intersection to make the turn as well. It was a hair raising experience for me. When Fred made up his mind to do something, he did it. For months I reminded him of that trip. We had a lot of fun together.

He was a good man who was a loyal friend. We had many wonderful times together with Fred and Diane over the years in Cape Coral. Our deepest sympathy to Fred's Family and his loving wife, Diane. May he rest in peace.

Tim, Thank you for sharing this story. I know the driving does not surprise us, but we appreciate your kind words. Your friendship meant a lot to both my Dad and Mom.
