

Frederick Wangaard

June 26, 2005

Wangaard Frederick Field Wangaard passed away on April 10, 2005 in Fort Collins, CO, at the age of 94. Fred was a university professor and an internationally known leader in the field of wood science. He was born in Minneapolis on Jan. 3, 1911, son of Christian and Hanna Marie Field Wangaard. Fred graduated from the University of Minnesota, majoring in forestry in 1933. Preceded in death by his beloved wife Laurie and his eldest son Fred, Jr. of Evergreen, CO. Fred is survived by his brother John Wangaard, two sons, Walt of San Diego and David of Shelton, CT, three daughters-in-law, Carolyn, Margi, and Robbin, and numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren. An interment service will be held Saturday, July 2 at 1 pm at Crystal Lake Cemetery, 3816 Penn Ave N, Minneapolis. Memorial donations may be made to Central Lutheran Church, 333 S. 12th St., Minneapolis, MN 55404.