“ We'll miss you Gabrielle. I'll never forget the food you cooked for us and the funny stories you tell and your energy. You were a good person and lived life to the fullest. You taught me to live life to the fullest now and we will miss you like crazy. Hope you get to see your dad and mom in the other side. R.I.P.

“ I went to high school with Gabby but more recently she's been a passenger on my various bus routes around the metro area. I'm going to miss our chats around the farbox...we spoke about our upcoming class reunion...life struggles...our kids...I'm gonna miss you girlfriend....you can finally rest...no more struggles❤️

“ Gaby had the best humor and very blunt advice. She meant absolutely well and her reasoning seeing potential in people. She always wanted to see humanity do better. She was the life of the party. I will always smile about the conversations we had and how she made me laugh. It was so much fun. ❤️

“Heartbroken and Sad... I worked with Gaby @ Saks in Minneapolis and we became immediate Friends! Her Smile and Great Belly Laugh were infectious- She was always Cheerful & Happy. We talked and told jokes together and helped each other through the work day- I Loved Her Sarcasm Also! She was a Beautiful Girl/Lady. We were around the same age and I loved hearing her say, "Hi Dolly" and "Have A Lovely Day" to the Customers- They will really miss her. She was a Bright Light in This World and I Will Miss Her. She is An Angel in Heaven... Love & Prayers To Her Family, Her Brother's, Her Son, and Her Granddaughter- Her Legacy Will Live On Through Them...
