“ I had been thinking of Gail but was reminded of her name after a family member sent a card to the staff in the ICU. I feel blessed to have cared for Gail during the last few days on this earth, and I feel equally grateful to have met her wonderful family members. Rest in Heavenly peace, Gail. I know you finally got that cup of coffee! -

“ We met Gail and Ken many years ago, not long after we moved onto Kelly Drive, up the street from them, in 1997. Both we kind and thoughtful neighbors. My condolences and prayers for peace and healing to their families and close friends. Sincerely, Callista and George Abide
