“ I had the honor of meeting his cousin Sharon Kambietz back in September '18. It was love at 1st site 1 person with a disability meeting another. We've been supportive of each other since day 1.

I hadn't met Gary nor his siblings until today. I believe it's important to have your soulmate with you during this day of personal loss. Love ones & more help bring the comfort those need.

“ I love my cousin Gary for keeping all of us remaining cousins in touch with one another as we went to musical and theatrical performance, and many dinner gatherings.. You always included me and I will always be thankful for having that extended family connection. It helped me through many losses and lonely times. I remember Sunday afternoons as a child playing with you and Dottie and Chuck as we grew up. Family is so important and once one realizes that it is this family love that helps keep the memories of those lost (husbands, fathers, mothers, cousins and more) one will always have meaningful memories. And do not ever forget that as Emily Dickinson said, "For all we know of love, is love is all there is." And so I pray on this tribute wall that I love you for never forgetting me. You are the man extraordinaire, I will always love and remember you.
