

Gary Richard Klinkhammer

April 1, 2016

Klinkhammer, Gary Richard age 75, of Hopkins, died April 1, 2016. Preceded in death by parents George R. and Magdalen Klinkhammer. He is survived by wife Patricia; sons, Scott (Lisa) Klinkhammer, Todd Klinkhammer, and David (Jill) Porter; daughters Lisa (Jim) Dummer, and Tracy (Larry) Andries. Also survived by 7 grandchildren, Taylor, Kaleb, Blake, Kade, Laura, Alex, and Jake. Gary was well known in the Hopkins community and at one point became the man with the big white dog. He worked for many years at Country Club Markets and after retirement took on many different jobs including many years at Tait's/Driskill's in Hopkins. He had a passion for many things including golf, bowling and most of all dogs. Especially very large dogs. He was a popular fixture at the dog park in Eden Prairie. In recent years he became very interested in finding new and interesting restaurants to try. Gary lived his life to the fullest and he was truly one of a kind. He will be missed. May he be taking many long walks with his beloved dogs. A memorial visitation will be held 4-7pm Friday, April 8, 2016 at Washburn-McReavy Hopkins Chapel. Interment at Ft. Snelling National Cemetery Monday April 11, 2016 at 11am. Memorials preferred to the Animal Humane Society. Washburn-McReavy.com Strobeck Johnson 952-938-9020
