“ Gary has been a friend of ours since Junior High school. We’ve had contact off and on up until now. This is heartbreaking to both of us. We will miss Gary very much. The 3 of us graduated together. Gary and I were always seated together if we had classes together because my last name being Martin. So together we were most of our Jr. and High school yrs. and Bob and Gary because of their love of automobiles. He even helped lay carpenter in our second home. He really liked our home we are in now and our property and was interested in looking at property in our area of east central Mn. We were keeping our eyes open for him. This loss was so unexpected. We have lost so many of our car buddies in the last yr. it’s so sad. We will miss Gary so very much and the crazy funny remarks during conversations. Such laughter and fun! Our hearts are breaking for his family and our group of friends. Prayers for Gary’s family for comfort and strength. We are so sad that we can’t be there for visitation or the service, neither of us can walk any distance or stand for any length of time. We send our condolences and love to all.
Love and peace, Bob and Nancy Taylor ❤️😭❤️🙏❤️
