

Gary Lane Seal

December 10, 2015

Seal, Gary Lane Born March 24, 1951, earned his wings on Thursday, Dec. 10, 2015. Born into a family with an appreciation for words, his parents, Joseph and Elaine Seal, named him after Elaine, hence Gary Lane. Gary came into the world with a number of physical and mental challenges. His introduction to education was at The Currative Workshop, on Franklin in Mpls., then on to Michael Dowling where he was class president and later the Cooperative Rehabilitation Center in Glen Lake. Gary reached his metier in the early 2000's when he was introduced at Interact Center for Performing Arts. Gary excelled in abstract pastels. His work was displayed in the National Portrait Gallery of the Smithsonian in Sept. of 2010. Gary's piece "Jesus" was featured in the book "Visual Theology." published by the Liturgical Press. Special thanks to Wingspan Life Resources for their loving care and housing of Gary. Our beloved brother is survived by David, Bruce (Renee), Scott (Patti) and Dean (Kirsten); 5 nieces and nephews, and 4 great nephews and niece. A service of celebration will be held at Bethlehem Lutheran Church, 4100 Lyndale Ave S., Mpls. on Tuesday, Dec. 15 at 11 AM with a visitation one hour before and also lunch to follow the service. Interment Lakewood Cemetery. Washburn-McReavy.com Davies Chapel 612-377-2203
