So sorry to hear about Gaylord. What a great family friend for years. I have such fond memories of Maureen and Gaylord when they were our neighbors, in Winona and such wonderful friends of my parents. May God's love surround you at this time. Wishing all of you strength and peace in the days ahead.

“ Gay was an incredibly generous and gracious man and is missed by Minnesota Assessors and his friends at the Minnesota Association of Assessing Officers and at the International Association of Assessing Officers where he served as president in 1990. Gay was the fist assessor I ever met and talked to, now I have served in the same career as Gay for 28 years. I miss seeing Gay and Bonnie each year at our annual conference. Condolences to all of his loved ones. Godspeed.
