Duesman, Georganne (Wilkinson) Loving mother and sister, passed away peacefully on September 7, 2012; age 76. She was born on May 30, 1936, the daughter of Florence and Ira T. Wilkinson. She was preceded in death by her husband, William; and survived by her children, Jennifer, Christopher (Brenda Rosenhamer) and Jonathan; sister, Mary Lou Meiners (Juneau, AK) and brother, Tom Wilkinson (Kansas City, MO). Georganne was born and raised in Kansas City, MO, where she attended Visitation Grade School and graduated from St. Teresa Academy in 1953. She earned her Bachelor of Arts degree from Avila College in 1957. In 1966, she married William Joseph Duesman (Humphrey, NE). His career took them to Washington, D.C., and finally, Minneapolis, where she spent the greater part of her life-long teaching profession at St. John's (and St. Joseph's) Catholic School in Hopkins; retiring in 2000.
