

George Leonard DeWall

August 15, 1942 - August 5, 2020

George Leonard DeWall entered Heaven Wednesday, August 5 at 11:11 PM. He is in the presence of his Saviour and reunited with his beloved wife Genevieve.

George was born August 15, 1942 in Waterloo, NY to Lawrence 'Bud' and Anna Belle (Nearpass) DeWall. He was born again when he asked the Lord to save him March 13, 1956. George spent his life sharing the Gospel with others while pastoring, teaching Sunday School and in his daily walk. While he served in various positions in secular jobs, his life's purpose was to serve his Lord and share the Gospel with those he met. He was a long-time member of Woodcrest Baptist Church in Fridley, MN and, during his time in Iowa, was a member of Round Prairie Baptist Church in Lockridge.

George was preceded in death by his parents, wife Genevieve, sister Anna Marie, brother Lawrence and infant grandson Benjamin.

He is survived by daughters Gwendolyn DeWall and Gloria (Glen) Villanueva, grandchildren Katie (Josh) Pate, Jon Mark, Micah, Rebecca and Sarah Villanueva, and great-granddaughter Allison Pate, brother David (Judy) DeWall and many nieces and nephews.

“ Dear Gwen and Gloria,
Your Dad and Mom were classmates of mine at Pillsbury College. We were all good friends and did many things together. Time has erased many of those details unfortunately , but I do remember when they visited us one Sunday when I was pastoring in St. Peter, Mn. I wish we had visited more after Sharon and I retired from the mission field in 2003. Now we Heaven to look forward to!!
A memorial gift has been sent to Camp Ebenezer in Uruguay through the Pope Children Foundation in memory of your dear Dad and the faithful life he lived for our Lord.
May you know God’s comfort and blessings.
With love and prayers, Ray Pope
