“ Living in northern Minnesota we did not get to see first cousins George and Bonnie often but was always fascinated by them.....always were friendly and happy.....with Christian values.....George always seemed dignified with common sense like someone you would want to be President of the USA....Elden, Tink. and Michael Elseth

“ I miss the many visits of Uncle George & Aunt Bonnie & cousins Ross, Alan & Lynn. I remember that Uncle George & Aunt Bonnie had surprised my Mom & Dad with a new kitchen table & chairs back when we lived in Frank St. My mom bought Ross a little clown that squeaked (called squeaky the clown). We had many meals with them when they came for a visit. They took us to a department store as little kids & we wanted a pool there, didn't have enough money to buy it & they paid the difference so we could have the pool. I treasure the times once a year before Labor Day & before school started we would visit Grandmas in Iron Wood & having our family reunion's with everyone there. I miss all those memories. I will truly miss Uncle George. May God Bless all the Family.
Our heart felt Condolences to Aunt Bonnie, Cousins Ross & Elizabeth,
Alan & Yolanda, Lynn & Daniel
