

George William Sparks

November 3, 1941 - August 17, 2021

Age 79 of Bloomington passed away on Tuesday August 17th at home in his sleep. Survived by his wife Wilma of 57 years and two daughters, Kristine (Rob) Mohr and Suzanne Sparks. Two grandchildren, Victoria Mohr (Erik Rybak) and Joseph Mohr. Brother in-law Glen Cothran and two nephews, Shawn Cothran and Shannon Cothran. George was preceded in death by his parents Cora and Velmer Sparks, sister Vivian Cothran and nephew David Cothran. George was born on 11/3/1941 in Laurel, Kentucky and spent his childhood in Hammond, IN. George graduated from Purdue University with a degree in engineering and obtained his master's from the University of Florida. George had the opportunity to have a very adventurous work career with GE and Honeywell and lived in Daytona Beach, FL., Glendale, AZ, Albuquerque, NM and then moved to Minnesota where he lived out his career until retirement. George enjoyed sharing his stories about his work career and would share how proud he was of participating in the Titan II project while in Florida. We will all miss hearing his stories and adventures.
