“ May his memory be eternal. George was a kind man with faith in God. It was an honor to visit him and bring him the sacraments his last few months with us. Fr. Jason

“ George was a thoughtful and helpful man. His love of music and cars was endearing. He was a great teacher, one that enjoyed sharing his knowledge. It was truly inspiring, his ability to stay active and keep wrenching on cars into his 80s. My brother and I came to know him and Gladys like grandparents. His positive outlook on life and those incredible stories he would tell in his own, unique way, will always make me smile. I have so many great memories of George and will cherish them forever. - Aaron Ahlstrom

“ Thank you for sharing your life with us on Lowry Ave. I'm sure it could not have been easy being a step dad to 3 unruly boys and a little girl. You taught us how to become better human beings and for that we are eternally grateful. We will miss you!!
