“ George & I have emailed each other through the years and even had a fun dinner many years ago w/ Serena & Nancy in or near Minneapolis. We also both had a memory of our mothers about 1924. George’s mom Adeline was living with her parents & family in Naugatuck, Connecticut. My mom Dorothy was a country girl living in Wisconsin. Somehow Adeline’s Mom: Anna Anderson (my Grandmother’s sister) invited my mom to spend part of the summer with Adeline while Anna & husband Charles Anderson spent time in Europe. Well needless to say that summer was the highlight of my mother’s life to that point. They both had great fun even having lunch in the same Copley Plaza hotel dining room as the famous Thomas Edison!

“ We bought 271 Meadow Road, Raymond, ME, from your dad exactly 20 years ago. He visited us several times in Maine thereafter, and we also visited him in Anoka. He was a special person, we enjoyed keeping current with him over the years, and we miss him already. Eric Hayden and family
