“ Sorry for your loss. I met George while working for his father Norm who was like a father to me. I met George and we became friends almost instantly. I continued to work for Norm and George until they closed the bar and haven't seen him for some time. then out of nowhere George finds me and he would call and come over often. George was like a big brother to me and if there was anyone to work for I am glad it was me who worked for George. Going to miss him but will not forget him. Love you my brother
