“ Jerry was an amazing man of God! Reading through all the memories that others had of him is very similar to mine. He loved the Laotian community and would spend quality time with all the kids. Whether that be playing board games, going swimming at the lake and picking up donuts. He absolutely had a heart of gold and was extremely patient with all of us. I have so many memories of gatherings in our home. We would enjoy dinner together and playing board games throughout the night with him until 1-2am. He would drive us everywhere we needed to be. Exposing us to the Christian radio and praying before we ate, he eventually instilled Christ into my life. The seed of Christ was absolutely planted by him. I was so young and didn't realize how much of an impact he had on me. He taught me that service to others and the love of Christ is what truly matters in life. You will always have a special place in my heart Jerry. You are home with the Lord now. Rest In Peace ❤️

“ Jerry is was great to see you one more time. You were a true gentleman. An unbiased man who open his heart to the Lao community. A man that plays the piano and the accordion, who would play from his heart and mind. Jerry would always be down to play board games but would always want to play Uno, and could play for hours. Jerry never had the best cars, those cars that he had would either have a flat tire, would overheat or have some type of electrical issues. Jerry would be more than willing to take us anywhere, either to the Mall of America or the state fair, he would take us. For some reason, I noticed that Jerry would always take the back roads and would never get on the highway. I remember helping him pick up donuts from a bakery in south Minneapolis and we would deliver these donuts all over the city. The most hilarious thing that Jerry would do is stick his finger into a donut, then lick his finger before picking it up and handing that donut over to someone. Jerry take care, you're in a better place now and you will be remembered.

“ I am really saddened to hear of his passing. For the past couple of years, I have been looking for him but was unable to reconnect with Jerry. He was such huge part of my childhood and he did so much for the Laotian community in general. He was a man of God and a man convicted in his faith. He taught me the value of service to others. I remember picking up donuts that were to be thrown out and Jerry and I would deliver them to families he knew that were in need. Another great memory I had was volunteering at the Gospel Mission with him. We served the homeless and other at risk populations. I didn't know it then but because of him, I now know the value of service and humility. To that end, I believe he has instilled these values to many he has touched over so many years. "The true meaning of life is to plant trees, under whose shade you do not expect to sit". I think of Jerry when I read those words. I will miss him and his accordion. You were called to serve, now you have been called home...thank you Jerry for being a part of my life.

“ Jerry was a VERY GREAT CHRISTIAN MAN OF GOD. He used to pick up ALOT of Lao kids to church, trips, rollergardens rollerskating and eat noodles and games at his house and did EVERYTHING for us. Took him to his favorite place a few yrs back to his favorite buffet Old Country Buffet he was very thankful me my brother and friend said NO thank you. This is NOTHING compared to what u did for us. I was just looking him up to get his phone number to see if he would like to go eat OCB this sat. And saw this 😞😞😞😞 my heart is sad and hurts for his family. 1 of the MOST humble man I've ever and will EVER know. RIH JERRY LOVE U SIR.
