

Gerald Lynn Galbreath

October 18, 1957 - May 11, 2025

Gerald Lynn Galbreath was born October 18th, 1957 to Odell and Odessa Galbreath in Tulsa, Oklahoma. There they created a strong legacy with Gerald as the youngest of the family.

In 1968, Gerald and his family moved to North Minneapolis, MN where he attended John Hay Elementary. During this time he created lifelong friendships and endearingly earned the nickname Slow. He attended North High School and WOC where he took up tailoring. After graduating, Gerald went on to honorably serve in the United States Air Force.

Later, Gerald was employed at Roger's Cable as a lineman traveling the 5 state area. He received electrical and carpentry training during his employment at House Doctor. Afterward, he spent several years as manager at the Bloomington Marriott Hotel. At Last, Gerald began his entrepreneurial journey with his friend. However, he spent his last years in business independently. Recognized for his contagious humor, workmanship and a penchant for letting people know his hair only needed water. Gerald had many loves including his fondness for milk and sweets, westerns, fishing, and his love of sports. Above all, his greatest love was his family, who he visited often. His grandchildren couldn't pronounce "Gerald," so they affectionately called him "Grandpa George." Gerald will be immensely missed.

Gerald is preceded in death by his Father Odell, Mother Odessa and Brother Richard "Tommy."

He is survived by his 3 children: Aqueelah, Gerelle and Gerald; 8 grandchildren: Caimyn, Kyndal, Christine, Daylee, Kenneth, Gerald, Jrue and Jai; 7 siblings: Wanda, Mike, Terry, Phil, Sandy, Reggie and Cheryl. Gerald also leaves behind a host of loving nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
