“ I will miss listening to Jerry ramble on about all things coin related, what made coins different from each other, how he was always on the hunt for a rare coin he needed to complete his collection or or to just replace a weathered one. I loved listening to him and Chris talk Mopars and Muscle Cars, it always reminded me of the car conversations I'd had with my own Dad. The family night out sitting boulevard-side watching all the cool cars cruising CR boulevard. Listening to him talk about the Foo Fighters always made me smile. Thank you Jerry for welcoming me into the family and for the precious short time I had with you. Wishing you peace and endless drives on heavens highway 55. Much Love Lisa.
