

Dr. Gerald W. "Jerry" Lundeen

October 17, 2013

Lundeen, Dr. Gerald W. Jerry died at his Edina home on October 17, 2013 after a lingering illness. He was born in Superior, WI on December 3, 1924, attended Superior State University and graduated from the Chicago Podiatry College. He practiced podiatry at Southdale Medical for over 30 years. He was proud of his military service during WWII. Jerry was preceded in death by his son Richard. He is survived by his wife of 64 years, Ruth; 4 grandchildren, Erica (Merek), Jill (David), Graham (Aygul) and Quinn; great-granddaughter, Kayla; sisters-in-law, Sinikka Lundeen, Mary Ellen Jondle and Grace Ostenso; and many nieces and nephews. Jerry loved hunting, fishing, gardening, reading, scouting with son Richard, sailing and crossword puzzles. A family gathering will be held at a later date. “ We have been friends of Jerry & Ruth since 1955 and will always remember the trip to the family home at Orr, MN. Which included making a wild blueberry pie on an ancient cook stove. We are saddened at Jerry's death, but he is free of suffering and is at peace and with the Lord. Andy & Kathie Anderson
