“ Jerry was a man of impeccable character who was always so congenial, caring and generous. He always had an amazing hunting or fishing story to share with a smile on his face and a twinkle in his eye. He was always happy to hear from us and took a genuine interest in our lives. Spending time with Jerry and Joanie was such fun and we always looked forward to the next time. From my high school days with Steve and still today they always made me feel special. At our high school party Jerry made me putt a dozen times until I finally made the hole and won a Playmate cooler! He and Joanie had as much fun as us kids! He still calls me Hec, a nickname the Ramsdell family gave me after a 70s TV character, Hec Ramsey. He will be genuinely missed. Much love and hugs to Joannie, Mark, Lisa, Sue and family.

“ I know how much Jerry meant to you his family. The short time I knew him he was always a happy, helpful man around the complex at Shores of Stieger Lake. He will be missed.
