“ Carol, I was so sorry to hear about Jerry after all of these years. I worked for Mr. Coleman when Jerry came to work for him. I remember the four of us going to a hockey match. My husband, Ron, was sent to flight school and your son, Erik, was born right before he went to Vietnam. I felt badly that we lost contact as that was a difficult year. I remember Jerry as being a nice young man and I had hoped we could see you both once again. That's why I kept searching on Facebook and other places on line trying to find you. It is ashamed that you lost him at such a young age. Our sincerest condolences. Ron and Jo Ann Pfeiffer
