“ My sympathy to the whole family. She was a great lady and meant a lot to her Center Grove group of friends. I enjoyed her stories and her sense of humor even in the tough times. May God bring you comfort in the days and weeks ahead.

“ Gerry was a wonderful friend and neighbor. She was a fabulous cook and she loved to make holiday cookies and candy. She loved doing things for her family. It was hard to see her in the last few years as her health declined. She is now at home with the Lord. May the family find peace and comfort as they celebrate her life.
