“ I am so very sorry for your loss. GiGi is such a beautiful little angel, I am sure our Heavenly Father welcomed her with open arms. It is so sad to lose a child no matter how old or young they are. You, as her family, are suffering an unimaginable loss and one that very few others have to go through. I wish I could take away some of your grief but I do want you to know that I am praying for you and will always remember this darling girl.

“ Many thoughts, prayers, and much love to you all at this time of loss. GiGi might have had a short life here on earth but forever she will live on in the hearts of her parents, family, and people who had the pleasure to have held her. God took her into His loving arms and she is now an angel looking down from above at her beautiful parents who she will live on in their hearts forever.

My sincerest sympathy to you all.

Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal.
