“ We met Gladys and Jack in Mankato when Dave and I moved back from Minnetonka in 1973 and became involved in getting a hockey program started. Gladys and I worked on many fund raisers for MAHA. through the years. I can still see her smiling and warmly welcoming everyone. We were also PEO sisters in Chapter BE. She was not only a beautiful woman but had an inner beauty and charm, always a soft spoken gracious lady. . My sincere sympathy to all of you. Enjoy your happy memories as you celebrate her life.
