“ I'm sorry that my health will not allow me to share in Glenn's celebration of life. Glenn will be missed by all who knew him, both family and friends. How his eyes sparkled when he talked about a classic car trip to Iowa to visit family. My favorite memory is a Saturday spent in Kingston MN looking at the vintage cars and talking with the owners/drivers. Glenn was so knowledgeable about these pioneer vehicles.

Rest easy Glenn knowing that you made a difference by your presence here in this community. Many people who never knew you will none the less feel the loss because you are no longer contributing in the community.

My prayers are for your family and friends that they are able to cope with your loss through the joy of knowing you.

“ Glenn was our landlord for some time in me and my wife's first house together. He took great pride in the property, which he'd maintained and lived in at one point. "I'd never rent any place I wouldn't live myself," he told us. He had a quick wit and the energy of quite a younger man. Rest in peace.

“ So many stories to share. To many to even begin. Glenn is a trusted advisor, guidance counselor, and friend. My wife seemed to know him forever. When she and I married I met with him and loved him from day one. A true perfect spirit with a love for helping others, old cars and you name it. We loved that develish side of him which I know will be allowed in heaven. Thank you, Glenn....Michael Meyer
